

Long, bright, one bold stone.

Cooking, eating and garden in one line down the rear wing. The quartzite splashback is the one bold material; the oak larder wall warms the far end and hides the utility.

F1	Worktop	Brown and grey quartzite, full-height splashback, stone shelf
F2	Units	Warm white shaker
F3	Larder wall	Crown-cut oak veneer, black bar handles
F4	Floor	Dark stained herringbone timber
F5	Glazing	Black-framed bay doors to the garden
L1	Light	Opal pendants on original roses, plaster sconces
U1	Utility units	Grey-green shaker, oak worktop
U2	Utility floor	Burgundy quarry tiles

Photographed May 2025. Moodboards alongside.

